

LENZIE COMMUNITY COUNCIL

minutes of meeting held on Wednesday 15th October 2014
in the Committee Room at Lenzie Halls

		ACTION
1.0	ATTENDANCE
1.1	Liz Ibbotson, John McFadden, Tom Gray, Donald MacLeod, Christine Morrison (Chair), Rosemary Craig, Suzanne Smith, Pat Munro.
2.0	APOLOGIES
2.1	Sandra Thornton, Councillor Geekie, Tony Miles
3.0	POLICE REPORT
3.1	Community Police - Constable Jennifer Murray attended and gave crime reports for September and October. There were 2 reported crimes in September, covering vandalism and a stolen car. There were 7 reported crimes in October to date, 4 of which had been detected. Stolen cars figure frequently in cases and speeding in 30 mph zones. Very often car keys are stolen from residences, where doors are left unlocked or the keys are visible through letter boxes and extracted with fishing rods and magnets.
3.2	Community Wardens – Craig Bell and John Timoney attended. Various issues concerning car parking were raised. In many cases, the absence of marked parking restrictions means that no action can be taken at this stage but the Wardens have been pointing out to drivers where appropriate that more considerate parking is advisable. It was agreed that contact information for the Warden service be added to the website links.	TG
4.0	MINUTES OF 24TH SEPTEMBER 2014 MEETING
4.1	Two amendments were made. In 10.5, the action was changed to prefer an informal contact with the proprietor. In 10.4, the status of Coronation Gardens was included in a post-meeting note, together with information that EDC maintenance of this area would continue with assistance from local residents. The minutes were then accepted.
