Constables Jennifer Murray and Ian Marshall attended and reported crime statistics for the period since the last meeting. There was no major rise in crime. Car crime had been a major focus, including absence of tax discs, MOT certificates and theft of and from vehicles. Anti-speeding campaigns had been mounted on the Link Road, Boghead Road and other locations. Various comments were made by more than one member on inadequate sight-lines at the Townhead roundabout where vehicles entering the roundabout from the south are faced with traffic appearing at excessive speed from the right. Similar concerns were raised about the roundabout at the exit slip (north) from the M80. Otherwise, incidents were mainly of an anti-social nature, including vandalism.
